

Celebrating
Innovative Groundwater Management
50 Years of Groundwater Recharge with Recycled Water

Enjoy the beautiful walking and bike trails and shady picnic areas of the San Gabriel Coastal Spreading Grounds, in Pico Rivera, as we celebrate this important milestone in the history of Southern California water resource management and reliability.

This bicycle friendly event will include refreshments, educational information, kids' activities, special guest speakers and much more.

Saturday, September 8, 2012
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. ~ Ceremony at 10:00 a.m.
San Gabriel Coastal Spreading Grounds
Picnic Area & Bike Trails

Vehicle parking behind A Mi Hacienda Restaurant
9613 Whittier Blvd., Pico Rivera, CA

Pedestrian / Bike entrance on Whittier Blvd.
Between the San Gabriel River and Gregg Road
(across from A Mi Hacienda Restaurant)

For more information call 562-275-4215, email pwareham@wrd.org

Innovative Groundwater Management

50 Years of Groundwater Recharge with Recycled Water

Saturday, September 8, 2012
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. ~ Ceremony at 10:00 a.m.
San Gabriel Coastal Spreading Grounds
Picnic Area & Bike Trails

Directions

From 605 Freeway
Exit on Whittier Blvd.
Go west on Whittier Blvd.

Free vehicle parking behind A Mi Hacienda Restaurant
9613 Whittier Blvd., Pico Rivera, CA
(Corner of Whittier Blvd. and Gregg Road)

Pedestrian / Bike entrance on Whittier Blvd.
Between the San Gabriel River and Gregg Road
(across from A Mi Hacienda Restaurant)

For more information call 562-275-4215, email pwareham@wrdd.org