Gregory Salcido

Mayor

Gregory Salcido was elected to the Pico Rivera City Council in 1999, and served as Mayor in 2002. Born in East Los Angeles, Councilman Salcido graduated from El Rancho High School before attending Whittier College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in History. Councilman Salcido currently teaches history at his alma mater El Rancho High School here in Pico Rivera.

Councilman Salcido serves as director on several community organizations including the Friends of Pio Pico State Park, Los Angeles Center for Alcohol and Drug Abuse, Los Angeles County Sanitation Districts and the Southeast Water Coalition.

Councilman Salcido is committed to protecting and promoting the highest quality of life for Pico Rivera residents. His goal as a councilmember is to continue Pico Rivera's inclusion into the American mainstream.

Councilman Salcido credits his students for being a constant reminder that keeping a positive and optimistic disposition is necessary for a productive future.
